

Myanmar Environment Institute

Myanmar Environment Institute (MEI) was founded in 2011

Vision: Contribute towards Sustainable Development

Mission: To exchange scientific knowledge, principles, and concepts to understand the interrelationships of the physical and biological components of nature, to identify and analyze environmental problems both human-made and natural, and to evaluate the risks associated with these problems and examine alternative solutions for resolving them

Why CRBO

